GENTS' OUTFITTER

SUITS • READY • MADE • AND • TO ORDER

Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Gloves, Trunks, Valises, Underwear.

It is nearly three years since we opened what is now known all over Northern Arizona as J. W. WEATHERFORD'S GENTS' FURNISHING STORE on Railroad avenue.

To our customers during this period we express our appreciation for their recognition of our efforts in their behalf, and as a result in their confidence and our close attention to business, we have to-day the largest stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, MEN'S HATS, BOOTS, SHOES, TRUNKS, VALISES and in fact everything that goes to make up a first-class Gents' Outfitting Store, on the line of the A. & P. Ry. from Albuquerque, N. M., to California.

To appreciate the variety and selection of our stock, a personal inspection is necessary.

In conclusion, we ask you to CALL and see us when you are in Flagstaff and we will show you more and better goods for less money and a larger assortment to select from than you can find anywhere else. Call in and be convinced that our prices are right and that we have the goods.

Very respectfully,

J. W. WEATHERFORD.

"Owney," the famous dog that makes his home in Uncle Sam's mail cars, passed through here Tuesday morning for the East, returning from the national convention of railway postal clerks at San Francisco. "Owney" has been on the road eight years, and during that time has made four round trips from New York to the Pacific coast, and one trip around the world. He travels alone, finds his trains like any experienced traveler and will not sleep on any other bed but a mail sack. Although he has lost an eye and is not as handsome as he was in his youth, he is a distinguished looking specimen of the genus canis and numbers his friends among the railroad postal clerks by the thousands.
